President's Message

Hello ECSC

I can't believe July is over and August is here. I hope all of you have a great month. I always look forward to what the new month has to offer.

We have had a full house it makes me so happy. I love watching everyone dancing, laughing and enjoying our Shag family.

A young engaged couple came last Tuesday. This sweet guy knew she loves to dance. He searched the internet and found us; then brought her to Raines. They said they felt so welcome. So many went up talked to them and we had them doing the basic step before they left. And they assured me they will be back.

That makes me so proud of the members of our Club. This story about feeling welcome I have heard so many times.

I try to speak to everyone if I don't make it to everyone know that I try.

And girls it is ok for you to ask the guys to dance. Let us all keep the floor full. It makes our amazing DJs happy.

Pray-Love-Dance

Love all of you Cheryl

SOS Cards for 2026

- Norman Mills is selling SOS Cards! They are $40.
- If you wait and buy them at the beach, they are $45.
- Get yours now before he sells out!
- It's an investment in the future of Shag.

This pin belongs to Wanda Robertson. She wore it to Raines recently. She said it was from a long time ago. 😊 I love it!

I love this picture that Paul sent to me of Pam Skelton and Asher Moorhouse. A long-time member and a new member dancing together. That's what keeps our favorite dance going!

The background of the entire image is a festive celebration scene. It features two champagne flutes filled with bubbly liquid, a single lit sparkler in the center, and several large, reflective disco balls in the foreground. The background is a soft-focus bokeh of warm, golden-yellow lights. The overall color palette is dominated by warm tones like gold, yellow, and white, with some hints of red from streamers.
